TEACHER'S TOP TIPS

In each section, you answer all questions . Each set of questions has four parts to it.

- a) 3 mark question which asks you to 'state three' or 'outline three' facts or pieces of information.
- b) 4 mark question that asks you to 'explain two' or 'describe two'. These test knowledge and understanding. You need to write two paragraphs, each containing a developed point.
- c) 5 mark questions which will ask you to 'explain two'. You must give two detailed reasons. Remember to include a source of wisdom and authority in your answer that links to one of the detailed reasons you have made.
- d) 12 mark questions will give you a statement and ask you to evaluate it considering arguments for and against. They will also give you up to three bullet points of instructions about what you must include in the answer. Try and give two developed points for and two developed points against including sources of wisdom and authority. Try and ensure that your points are logical and link together. Remember you MUST include a justified conclusion which does not repeat points already made.

The first D question on each paper will also assess your spelling, punctuation and grammar where you can gain up to an extra 3 marks.

Effectively you shouldn't spend longer than 25 minutes on each section.

How do you ensure that a point is developed?

- PEE method – Point, Example, Explain
- Using a connective such as because, therefore
- Including phrases such as : as a result, for example, this shows that, this means that

e.g. Explain two ways Catholics work for evangelism (4)

The Church calls Catholics to announce and spread the Gospel as a result missionaries will often work in places such as Africa and preach the good news.

A second way is about living the Gospel in daily lives, this means performing acts of charity, or kindness, setting an example for others about what it means to be a Christian.

REMEMBER Use sources of wisdom and authority in C and D questions

The Bible says.....The Church says.....Jesus said.....

10 Commandments: Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not lie, Do not commit adultery

Catechism of the Catholic Church

Golden rule 'Treat others as you want to be treated'.
